THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Happy New Year 2023 to all the members of the Maryland Token and Medal Society. We came out of 2022 a bit slow but I hope 2023 sees us pick up our activity and hobby interest. The last Whitman Coin Show in 2022 showed promise as we had good attendance and a very good meeting. I hope this continues.

We had a super Journal to finish out 2022. It was filled with hobby information and for those of us into history it was great. I hope all our members will help continue this with some new material for Jane to use in this year's Journals. Sharing this information with other members and the hobby community is what our organization is all about. For those who contributed, keep up the great work. For other members how about writing an article about one of your favorite tokens or some other interesting hobby subject.

Unfortunately, we opened the New Year with a major loss for MD TAMS as we lost one of our stalwart members, Bryce Doxzon, who passed away. Bryce had been ill as you probably knew but he passed on 1 January 2023. You will see more about Bryce elsewhere in this Journal which contains a very detailed retrospective on Bryce and many of his hobby contributions.

I just returned from the memorial service for Bryce. It was extremely well done. Bryce was very active in his church as well as he was in his hobby and his work. The service was very nice and extremely well attended. After the service, there was food for the attendees accompanied by many pictures and items from Bryce's collection on display. As part of the slide show, there were many pictures of Bryce's show exhibits and various shows and other activities with which he was involved.

Both MSNA and numismatic MD TAMS were very prominent.

Ed Craig

DEADLINE MARCH 15. 2023

L. R. CARSON, CRISFIELD MD ---

ED CRAIG LM-22

I think that I have been able to attribute one of my maverick tokens. This is always a good feeling and is part of the fun associated with the hobby. The token in question is: OBV: (tulip ornament in middle of two dots and two lines) / L. R. CARSON/(same ornament configuration but upside down)

REV: 1 within rays (Dorman die)

Aluminum, round

Most of my research was based on the references listed at the bottom of this article. I liberally quoted and took from these sources to write this article. Credit is due to those sources for much of this hobby documentation.

Based on my research, this token is for Lee Roy Carson of Crisfield, MD who had a sea food packing house operation there. Lee Roy was born in York, PA. He was raised in Baltimore and appears to have started in the business in North Carolina in about 1902 working for the S.S. Costen Company. About three years later, he relocated to Crisfield, MD where he established a soft crab and crab meat business. The magazine "the Oysterman and Fisherman" wrote the following: "... Mr. L. R. Carson, successor to Evans & Carson ... is one of the leading young men of Crisfield, Maryland. ... He is building the most up-to-date hard crab and crab meat plant to be found in this country, having visited leading crab meat packers in Baltimore, Md. and Hampton, Va., where he inspected their plants and with improved ideas is erecting a building made of concrete which gives him a house most sanitary in every respect."

When looking at the Crisfield seafood scene of this time frame, it is sometimes hard to distinguish between the people that owned the property to include the buildings and the seafood businesses that operated out of the buildings. Sometimes they were the same and sometimes they were different. By way of example, Isaac "Ike" Tawes sold property on Jersey Island in Crisfield, Maryland, in 1893 to George S. Payne. This building housed C. Hodson Oysters and Crabs in 1897, and Riggin Bros. Oysters and Crabs in 1885 and 1891. In 1891, Payne sold the property to James C. Tawes, Isaac H. Tawes and John H. Riggin, who operated under the firm name Tawes & Company. Tawes & Co. sold the business to Lee Roy Carson, Sr. in 1906. John H. Riggin sold his 1/3 share of the property to James and Isaac Tawes in 1908. In 1917 an Insurance map shows Tawes & Co. as the owners with the building divided between Tawes & Co. Oyster House, Milbourne Oyster Company, and Ward Nelson & Co. Oyster House. Carson operated the business with all types of local seafood until his death in 1935.

The L. R. Carson Packing house not only handled soft crabs and crab meat but shipped Chesapeake Diamond Backs and Southern terrapin, hard crabs, clams, fish and oysters. In 1912, Carson purchased a crab plant in Hampton, Virginia, so that he could operate in Crisfield during the summer crab season and in Virginia during the winter months. In January, 1913, L. R. Carson advertised as "Manufacturer of Crab Flakes, Hampton, Va., Crisfield, Maryland." In 1915, Carson opened another plant on Hoopers Island in Dorchester County, where he specialized in hard, soft, and shedder crabs. In 1931, L. R. Carson letterhead lists Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina Seafood, Oysters and Escallops in Season, Shad, and Shad Roe in season, Branch Houses in Manteo NC, Tangier VA, Hoopers Island, MD, Morehead City, NC, Bishops Head NC, Crisfield MD, and Hampton, VA.

The former L. R. Carson packing house now houses part of the H. Glenwood Evans & Son seafood operation on Jersey Island facing the Crisfield harbor, in Somerset County, Maryland. The two-story, three-bay concrete block building dates to 1912. Some history is necessary to follow the lineage of L. R. Carson and his business.

Later in his career, Carson was very involved in the business economics and union rights associated with the seafood industry. "In September 1931, Leroy Carson, owner of one of the largest packinghouses in Crisfield, led the seafood companies in Crisfield in reducing wages from $.35 to $.25 a gallon. Between 700 and 800 crab-pickers (of whom 100 were white) in 22 plants went on strike to protest. Some packinghouse owners tentatively offered $.30 but the offer was refused by the strikers. The US Department of Labor, US Conciliation Service, reported that the "operators are holding out, because they wish continued wage reductions through the oyster-shucking season, which opens today; and that this reduction is chiefly to fix oyster-shucking wages through the autumn, winter and spring seasons. Much solidarity is reported between all workers, white and colored, who have said they would hold out for the $.35 wage, although there is some tendency to compromise by returning to work at $.30 per gallon."

It should be noted that the token for Mr. Carson was not listed in either the Maryland TAMS Maryland Merchant Tokens by David Schenkman nor the Addendum to that book published by the Maryland Token and Medal Society. The token is also not listed in the NTCA Tokencatalog data base. Mr. R. Lee Burton in his book "canneries of the Eastern Shore does not show L.R. Carson or his packing house in the Somerset County listings. Mr. Burton does list Tawes and Gibson Packing Co. as operating in Crisfield in 1919. He also shows Ralph Riggin and Bro. as being in operation in Crisfield 1919-1946. I am not sure how Ralph is related to John Riggin above.

Researching one of your maverick tokens can be a lot of fun. Just ask Bill Miller or Jane Sears who both do this often and very well.

Frostie Root Beer is an American brand of root beer that was originally produced in 1939. Frostie Old Fashion Root Beer beverage contained carbonated water, sugar, caramel color, natural and artificial flavor. The beverage was usually sold in 12fl. oz. bottles with embossed or paper labels.

The Frostie Beverage Company was owned by George Rackensperger who opened a bottling plant in an abandoned jailhouse in the suburb of Catonsville, Maryland. The company's grew at a quick pace. In 1941 the firm quit the jailhouse location. Moving into a new and modern facility with enlarged floor space and greater capacity for bottling machinery at 6426 Baltimore National Pike, Baltimore 28, Maryland just west of Rolling Road. The building comprised 6,000 square feet of office space and 13,000 square feet for the bottling plant.

Frostie Root Beer quickly became Rackensperger's top selling product. In 1947, The Frostie Company was organized as a parent organization to manage the other franchised beverages.

The first patent was issued on March 27, 1944 as Frostie. Then it was reissued on April 23, 1956 as The Frostie Company, Baltimore, MD.

This new logo was filed on March 1961 for making a non-alcoholic soft drink beverage, syrups, flavoring bases and concentrates.

In 1966, the company was called Canada Dry-Frostie Corporation. They opened a new 30,000 square foot plant that was built on a 3 acre site in the Meadows Industrial Park, 1620 Whitehead Court off Security Blvd. near Beltway Exit 17 (955-6600). Also at that same address was The Frostie & Dixi Cola Co. 944-9400. It was a fully automated plant that contained 21,000 square feet of warehouse space. The warehouse featured a drive-through feature for the purpose of prompt loading of their 30 truck fleet. The production area contained 6,000 square feet and the administrative area measured 3,000 square feet. This site served more than 2,000,000 consumers through its routes in the Baltimore metropolitan area, Anne Arundel, Harford, Frederick counties and other outlying counties. The warehouse had a capacity of a bottling line of 220 bottles a minute and 4,300 cases per day. The total warehouse capacity was 90,000 cases. A laboratory conducted control hourly tests on bottling water, syrups, bottles, finished products and bottle washing solution. The plant employed 70 persons.

The corporation also maintained a central Maryland distribution bottling plant in Frederick, MD and also in Alexandria, VA.

In 1971, The Frostie Enterprises purchased a competing root beer brand and drive in chain known as "Stewart's Restaurants". Then in 1974 they purchased the "Dog n Suds" Root beer drive in and brand. The Alleghany Pepsi-Cola Bottling Co. in Baltimore bottled Frostie in 1974.

At the end of 1979, the Frostie brand was sold to the Monarch Beverage Company in Atlanta, Georgia. The Frostie brand was sold in 2000 to Leading Edge Brands of Temple, Texas. In 2009, Leading Edge Brands sold the Frostie line of beverages to Intrastate Distributors, Inc. in Detroit, Michigan.

1947 paper label for bottle (3" x 4")

The organization had warehouses in Camden, NJ; Atlanta, GA; and St. Louis, MO. Today, Frostie is sold in Cracker Barrel Country Stores and also in Walmart in many states. It is also available on Amazon.

ROBERT W. ROSS III MD TAMS MEMBER/COLLECTOR -

ED CRAIG LM-22

Robert W. Ross III passed away in 2019. He was a long time member of the Maryland Token and Medal Society. Although a member, Bob lived in Wilmington, Delaware and almost never attended our meetings. Bob was both collector and dealer. I first met him at a coin show in Lanham, Md. where he had a table. He was a collector of DELMARVA pickers checks. He was a very advanced collector of cardboard berry tickets. We had quite a long discussion about these and I purchased some from him. This led to a continuing exchange with him through the mail. He was willing to share his personal list of his DELMARVA berry tickets and we occasionally traded or I would buy items from him. Robert was very knowledgeable on this subject matter.

Bob collected all types of paper items, including paper money facsimiles (play money & funny money). As a matter of fact, he produced his own such note. I recently found my copy of his personal issue. I wanted to share this with other members who may collect such material or just find these type of items interesting. The note is on very light green paper with black writing. The note is 2.75 inches by 6.25 inches. He has his face on the obverse. It is a ten million dollar note. The note is pictured below. Robert W. Ross III was a great member of our mutual hobby community.

In our 2022 Summer Journal an article by Bernie Bodt was published.

"George and Warren Brown Operations In Magnolia" (page 8)

Since that time he purchased a wooden box for his collection.

In 1916, the B P O E (Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks) had their 30th National Convention in Baltimore from July 10 to 15. The organization is an American Fraternal Order that was founded in 1868 originally as a social club in New York City. Members must be citizens of the United States, at least age 21 years and believe in God. Baltimore weather met the 25,000 visitors with a deluge of rain and for the week some of their activities were cancelled and rescheduled on a different day and time. Every train coming into Baltimore brought delegates from all parts of the country.

Visitors were to register at the registration office located on Eutaw Street. Every Elk and Elkette (female) had their duty to sign in. Filling out a card giving their lodge number, its name, his home city, his address in Baltimore where he was staying and the place to which he wants his name forward. Many members were lost when it was time to return to the lodging when they forget where they were lodged. Then that person presenting that card went to another table and received a large package of tickets to crab feasts, excursions, luncheons, concerts and places to visit. A band concert was given at Fort McHenry, a visit to the United States Naval Academy, a grand ball at the Fifth Regiment Armory, crab feast at Love Point, and band concert at River View Park.

A parade was scheduled along Baltimore Street on Thursday, July 13 with 7,000 members marching and on floats. The temperature was reaching a 90 degree level and there were many victims being sent to the hospitals.

Meetings were held at the Palace Theatre on Mount Royal Avenue. The Grand Lodge Headquarters was at the Belvedere Hotel. On July 11th, the convention membership elected their Grand Exalted Ruler.

The Texas delegation didn't appear because of the uprising on the Mexico border. The state had fears of the condition and decided to stay home to protect their homes while many of the elk members were also member of the state guard.

A new member was given the above medal. This one is not engraved. If it was free or was purchased it is not clear. This looks like an official medal that the organization gave out. Many of the Baltimore stores offered special BPOE items for sale.

The Baltimore Steam Packet Company ran the Old Bay Line (1840-1962). Over the years they operated 54 different ships. Trips were advertised in the Baltimore Sun newspaper. The company was located on Light Street.

In 1903, Mr. James Lawrence Kernan (1838-1912) theatrical entrepreneur started construction on his three-fold million dollar enterprise. The first to be complete was the Hotel Kernan, then followed by The Maryland (opened Sept. 5, 1905) and The Auditorium (opened Sept. 12, 1905). This area was known as Baltimore’s theatrical district located at Franklin & Howard St. The three buildings were connected by underground passages. Below ground level housed Turkish baths, bowling alley, billiard & pool rooms, rathskeller (German for cellar bar or restaurant), large tile swimming pool, barber shop, Ritz Bar and raw bar. Also for the buildings, there was a machinery hall, electric plant and boilers.

The Hotel Kernan was a 7 story structure constructed of steel and reinforced concrete, brick and terra cotta. The building with 150 rooms with 60 baths employed 350 people. Mr. Kernan died in his hotel in 1912. The ground floor holds the lobby, Marble Bar and the ballroom. Henry Fonda and Margaret Sullivan were married in the Hotel Kernan ballroom.

The Maryland Theater had a capacity of seating 1900 people (Franklin St. west of Howard) and was destroyed in 1950. The Auditorium Theater had a capacity of seating 1600 people (306 West Franklin St.) and later was renamed the Mayfair. The Kernan Hotel was renamed in 1932 to the Congress Hotel and closed in 1980s. The plan was to convert the hotel in 1995 to 42 apartment units.

This token could have been used in any number of the venues in the hotel.

Mr. Frank J. Marsden, Sr. opened his Chevrolet dealership in Towson in January 1950. It was located at 725-31 N. York Road at Susquehanna Ave. off of Beltway Exit 26S. It occupied the former premises of the Hicks Chevrolet, Inc. Company (see the opening ad below).

In 1986, the Marsden Chevrolet launched an advertising campaign promoting the slogan "We're here to please you". It included radio, TV spots, printed ads and point-of-purchase signage. There were even employee buttons and customer buttons. The buttons said, "I was pleased at Marsden Chevrolet." (Maybe you have one in your collection)?

In 1989, slumping sales forced many auto dealers out of business. The small family, single car line dealership found hard to compete with the big guys, the supermarket dealers who had 3 or 4 car lines. Marsden Chevrolet Inc., left the car sale business to concentrate on auto service. They sold off their 100 new cars in their lot at incentive prices. It operated as a full-service automotive repair facility that employed about 15 workers and was open 4 days a week. They were a "one-stop service center" where the customer could go for everything from an oil change to an engine overhaul. The dealership's parts center and body and paint shops will continue to operate and provide service for domestic and foreign vehicles."

Frank J. Marsden Jr. retired from the company in 1991 and died in 1994.

Caroline County's Only Known Encased Coin?

As far as encased coins go, the Eastern Shore of MD has relatively few. Somerset County has no known encased coins and 2 other counties, Caroline & Talbot only have one each.

Caroline's only listed encasement is from the Provident State Bank of Preston, MD. It is listed in Millard W. Hajek's Maryland Encased Coins as MD EC-77. There is one error on the listing; there should be a "Y" instead of an "S" in the acronym "S.E.T.K.S."

The Provident State Bank is still in business & is one the increasingly rare independently owned community banks in the state. It was originally established in 1904 as the Provident Savings Bank of Preston, MD. In 1912 it became the Provident State Bank. Currently it has ten locations in four Eastern Shore counties & one in Delaware.

The cent is a 1956-D given out at souvenirs at their grand opening of a ne bank building. As for the acronyms "L.E.T.S.Y." and "S.E.T.K.Y." I have no idea. Anybody have clues?

The Provident State Bank had the opening of their new banking quarters on Saturday from 1 to 5 p. m. Many townspeople and out-of-town guests attended and the beautiful flowers from well wishing friends were on display in the rooms of the bank. Refreshments were served and appropriate key rings were given as souvenirs.

Talbot County's Only Known Encased Coin?

In an earlier article I wrote about Caroline County's only known encased cent (Provident State Bank). Caroline's next-door neighbor, Talbot County also seems to have only one listed encased coin.

This encasement is from Covey's Service Station, Easton, MD. It is listed in Millard W. Hajek's Maryland Encased Coins as MD EC-65. The listing has a 1926-D cent. I have not examined this encasement but suspect the cent to have been replaced. The example shown here has a 1947 cent, which is in keeping with the telephone number "981" which corresponds with a contemporary advertisement from the Star Democrat newspaper dated June 17, 1949.

Covey's Service Station was on the corners of Dover & Aurora Streets in Easton in the late 1940s. The station was owned by James C. Covey, Sr. (1888-1977) and his son James Jr. (1913-1993). They were dealers in Cities Service petroleum products as well as blasting accessories from Dupont(!). Currently the property is a restaurant, Rude Burgers, specializing in (you guessed it) hamburgers, craft beer & bourbon.

The 2 issuers of encased cents from Caroline & Talbot counties were only 15 miles from each other. Surely there are other encasements from these 2 counties?

BRYCE FRANKLIN DOXZON OBITUARY

March 16, 1960 - January 1, 2023 (62 year old)

Bryce Doxzon's passing at the age of 62 on Sunday, January 1, 2023 has been publicly announced by Candle Light Funeral Home by Craig Witzke in Catonsville, MD.

Legacy invites you to offer condolences and share memories of Bryce in the Guest Book below.

The most recent obituary and service information is available at the Candle Light Funeral Home by Craig Witzke website. Published by Legacy on Jan. 2, 2023.

I just received a phone call informing me that on 1 January 2023, our friend and fellow hobbyist, Bryce Doxzon, passed away. Most know that Bryce had ALS which caused him to severely limit himself due to his increasing loss of personal mobility. During his slow demise, he faced an inability to speak or use his hands to type, etc.

We all remember how active Bryce was before his disease limited him greatly. Bryce was a member of several local coin and token clubs and the ANA. I was privileged to be able to write a retrospective on him while he was still somewhat active. This article was published in both the MSNA Numismatist and the MD TAMS Journal. A copy of the Retrospective can be found below.

This note is intended to alert his clubs to Bryce's passing. His brother said that the family will be holding a memorial service fairly soon and an obituary will be forthcoming. As I get this information, I will share it with this same distribution. This note is meant to alert the Maryland State Numismatic Association (MSNA), the Maryland Token and Medal Society (MD TAMS), the Baltimore Coin Club (BCC), and the Catonsville Coin Club (CCC) so they can alert their members to Bryce's passing. More data will follow. I also plan to notify the ANA.

BRYCE DOXZON: A NUMISMATIC RETROSPECTIVE

Most of you know of or have met Bryce Doxzon. He is a relatively quiet and low-key person. This outward calm masks a very dedicated numismatist with over forty years of experience. Even though he is younger, Bryce was well involved in formal numismatics when I got the bug and joined several of the organizations of which Bryce was already a highly active member.

Bryce is a true collector at heart. His primary area of interest is medals; especially United States presidential and Inauguration medals. A key and important part of his hobby interests is exhibiting his material. This gives him a chance to display his items of interest but more importantly to share the history surrounding these keepsakes with others, both other collectors and the general public. Bryce has exhibited at local shows and national shows to include ANA conventions around the country. His exhibits are certainly worth the time it takes to peruse them. He has had winning exhibits at some shows but the important factor to him is sharing his knowledge and material with others.

He belongs to many numismatic and exnumia organizations. When I say belongs, that is an understatement. Bryce is always a very active member of any organization to which he belongs. He has held various key positions with almost all of these organizations. That quiet guy you see is a behind the scenes dynamo, providing his dedication, professionalism, hard work and sage advice. Any club to which he belongs reaps the benefits of Bryce's team spirit and tireless efforts.

Go to any Pre-COVID numismatic event in the Baltimore area and you could find Bryce Doxzon there, helping out, performing a critical function, running an activity, taking registrations, coordinating exhibits or just making himself useful. His dedication to our hobby community is boundless, both at the local and national level.

He served as the Exhibits Chairman of two consecutive ANA World's Fair of Money shows in Baltimore (2003 and 2008), and as the Publicity Chairman of the 1993 Baltimore ANA Anniversary Convention. He has taken his experience at coordinating exhibits to new levels, now doing the job every year at the Whitman Baltimore Spring show under the auspices of the Maryland State Numismatic Association (MSNA), where he solicits for exhibits, manages the exhibit area, serves as Chief Judge and presents the awards. In addition he has exhibited at ANA shows and is a qualified ANA judge. He is the ANA Club Representative for the Catonsville Coin Club, a job he has held for years. He was appointed to the ANA Exhibits and Awards Committee for 2013-15.

On the local level, he has held the President and Vice President offices in three clubs, Secretary in four, and Treasurer in two. Note that he has been the Secretary of MSNA for over twenty five years. Additionally, he has served as Publicity/Advertising Chairman in two clubs and the Program Chairman for one. He has designed medals for two clubs, one national and one local.

He has the respect of all who work with him. It is for such reasons that Bryce was nominated and received the ANA's prestigious Glenn Smedley Award. Bryce's numismatic affiliations are numerous and so are the key positions he has held and the activities that he has led and supported. His involvement is never casual, it is very proactive, focused, professional and success oriented.

Here is the very impressive list of organizations to which Bryce belongs and the important roles he has held:

American Numismatic Association: (ANA) Exhibits and Awards Committee, Exhibitor, Glen Smedley Award winner (2016)
Maryland State Numismatic Association (MSNA): Secretary (28years), Publicity/Advertising chairman
Maryland Token and Medal Society (MD TAMS): President, Vice President, Secretary

Baltimore Area Numismatic Coalition (BANC): Registration Co-chairman, Secretary, Publicity / Advertising chairman (over 40 coin shows in 15 years)

Baltimore Coin Club (BCC): President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, Whitman Show Registration volunteer

Catonsville (MD) Coin Club: President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, ANA Club Representative, Program Chairman

Token and Medal Society (TAMS): Annual Medal Design Winner

Medal Collectors of America

This Retrospective on Mr. Bryce Doxzon is being written now because after all his considerable contributions, activity, and guidance in support of these organizations, he has regrettably had to terminate most of his key functions except his membership. Bryce was diagnosed with ALS a few years back but kept executing his critical functions and provided needed support to his clubs and their activities. His debilitation has made it necessary to stop his extremely long record of such critical support. As a member of these organizations, Bryce plans to be as active as possible but can no longer hold key positions. With this in mind, the Maryland State Numismatic Organization (MSNA) and the Maryland Token and Medal Society (MD TAMS) wanted to make sure that we publicly thanked Bryce and recognized all his long-standing and impressive contributions to our organizations and our hobby.

THANK YOU BRYCE !!!

Please Keep Bryce and his health in your thoughts and prayers.

NB: I want to thank Mr. Robert Fritsch (ANA, MD TAMS, TEC) for sharing the ANA Glen Smedley Award submission data with me. It was used freely in this retrospective.

BRYCE FRANKLIN DOXZON Obituary from the family

Born March 16, 1960, Bryce Franklin Doxzon passed away on New Year's morn as a result of a 3-year battle with ALS. He was a most brave & courageous fighter.

He is survived by: brother Kent, sister-in-law Debbie, niece Emily, nephew Sam; sister, Claire Simpson; brother Glenn.

While outwardly characterized as rather quite & subdued, Bryce was a very loving & devoted person passionately involved in many organizations & group as well as his family.

Bryce was a longstanding & very active member of Catonsville United Methodist Church where he played a key role in many facets of church life for which he was especially proud to have been a 22-year founding member of the "Contemporary Praise & Worship Band". The list of Bryce's involvement in CUMC as well as with other Christian community groups is too numerous to list. Suffice it to say, that he served as an obedient and faithful example of what it meant to be a follower of Jesus.

In addition to Bryce's spiritual life he was a very dedicated numismatist with over forty years' experience. As describe in MD Numismatist "Retrospective" (Autumn, 2021), Bryce was not just a member of various numismatic and exonomia organizations, but was a very "active" member of any organization to which he belonged. Bryce was a lifetime member of the American Numismatic Association (ANA); served as President of both the Catonsville & Baltimore Coin Clubs; and held the position of secretary to the MD State Coin Club. Exhibits in which he displayed his medals and tokens won many awards throughout the country. Bryce had a particular fascination with President James Madison as they both shared the same birthday and, thus, many of Bryce's medals showcased Madison.

Just as Bryce was highly engaged in his leisure time pursuits, he dedication was also mirrored in his professional life. From June 1985 through his retirement in Dec 2016, Bryce worked for the US Army Medical Research Institute of Chemical Defense at Arberdeen Proving Grounds. "Serving to Heal ... Honored to Serve!"

As with Bryce's active role within his Doxzon/Mueller family as well ass his integral role with the church, his numismatic groups, and his community, in general ... a void will be felt but he will forever be remembered.

A memorial service will be held at Catonsville United Methodist Church, 6 Melvin Ave, Catonsville, MD. On Jan. 31, 2023 at 11AM.

In lieu of flowers, donations are requested to reflect Bryce's commitment to the John Hopkins ALS Clinical Trial of which he was a participant. Where possible, kindly note that your contribution is being made in honor of Bryce F. Doxzon.

SPECIAL NOTE TO THOSE WHO DIDN'T KNOW BRYCE THAT WELL.

Bryce joined Maryland TAMS in the summer 1983 having the membership number R118. He was voted as vice president with Bill Miller president in June 1987. He was elected president at our June 1991 election and held the office for one term to 1993. Bryce took up the secretary position after the death of Paul Belschner in the spring 2015 until he resigned in the summer 2021 due to his own health condition.
